AI at work

The time spent after the AI draft

What 8,316 people who use AI at work said about checking and rework

Source: Use.AI survey of 8,316 adults who use AI at work, as reported by Digital Today on 20 October 2026. Answers are self-reported.

41%

said the time they spend reviewing or checking content went up after AI was introduced

Source: Use.AI survey of 8,316 adults who use AI at work, as reported by Digital Today on 20 October 2026. Answers are self-reported.

39%

said reviewing AI output took longer than doing the work themselves

> 43% said they had to redo unsuitable AI output from scratch

Source: Use.AI survey of 8,316 adults who use AI at work, as reported by Digital Today on 20 October 2026. Answers are self-reported.

58%

said their workplace has no clear rules on what must be checked before AI-assisted work is shared

Source: Use.AI survey of 8,316 adults who use AI at work, as reported by Digital Today on 20 October 2026. Answers are self-reported.

A before-and-after comparison needs the full length of the task, from first draft to the version that is sent.

orvysio.com

Source: Use.AI survey of 8,316 adults who use AI at work, as reported by Digital Today on 20 October 2026. Answers are self-reported.