UK businesses using AI doubled in a year

What the UK government's 2026 AI adoption survey says about productivity and costs

Source: GOV.UK, AI adoption survey 2026, published 29 October 2026. 3,503 telephone interviews with UK businesses, 7 January to 21 April 2026. Answers are self-reported.

32%

of UK businesses used at least one AI technology in 2026

The figure for 2025 was 16%.

Source: GOV.UK, AI adoption survey 2026, published 29 October 2026. 3,503 telephone interviews with UK businesses, 7 January to 21 April 2026. Answers are self-reported.

50%

of businesses using AI reported an overall increase in productivity

The report says these gains were generally described as modest.

Source: GOV.UK, AI adoption survey 2026, published 29 October 2026. 3,503 telephone interviews with UK businesses, 7 January to 21 April 2026. Answers are self-reported.

81%

of businesses using or planning to use AI named administration as a use 64% had seen no immediate financial effect on operating costs. 24% reported a reduction.

Source: GOV.UK, AI adoption survey 2026, published 29 October 2026. 3,503 telephone interviews with UK businesses, 7 January to 21 April 2026. Answers are self-reported.

OrVysio records how work runs across an organisation's tools before and after an AI rollout

orvysio.com

Source: GOV.UK, AI adoption survey 2026, published 29 October 2026. 3,503 telephone interviews with UK businesses, 7 January to 21 April 2026. Answers are self-reported.